

Call for Media Partner

OSCAL presents a unique opportunity for companies, brands, and institutions from Albania, the region, and internationally to connect with young tech enthusiasts, experienced developers, hacktivists, and the next generation of the free and open-source community.

We are currently accepting applications for Media Partners for OSCAL! Whether you represent a local or international media outlet, we would be thrilled to collaborate with you and share the OSCAL experience. As we expand our reach and audience for the 8th edition of OSCAL, we need your assistance in giving the conference the recognition it deserves. By supporting us, you'll receive support in return.

For more information, please visit our website at oscal.openlabs.cc or reach out to us at oscal\(at\)openlabs.cc.
